

Culinary Mile

Restaurants, cafés & regional specialities

- 1 Rum Kontor – Rum and Café muse maritim
c/o Schifffahrtsmuseum
Schiffbrücke 39
Fon +49 461 85 10 81
- 2 Restaurant Columbus
c/o Hotel Hafen Flensburg
Schiffbrücke 33
Fon +49 461 160 680
- 3 Restaurant Piet Henningsen
Schiffbrücke 20
Fon +49 461 245 76
- 4 Hansens Brauerei
Schiffbrücke 16
Fon +49 461 2 22 10
- 5 Porticus
Marienstraße 1
Fon +49 461 14 68 14 38,
Mobil +49 178 130 66 74
- 6 Ristorante San Marco
Große Straße 28
Fon +49 461 2 25 35
- 7 Restaurant „Im alten Speicher“
Speicherlinie 44
Fon +49 461 120 18
- 8 Restaurant „1871 – Grill & Buns“
c/o Hotel Alte Post
Rathausstraße 2
Fon +49 461 80 70 81 18
- 9 Ristorante „Buona Sera“
Nikolaistraße 10
Fon +49 461 224 58
- 10 Restaurant „Alte Senfmühle“
Holmhof 45
Fon +49 461 807 26 36
- 11 Grisou
Holmhof 45
Fon +49 461 48 08 99 66
- 12 Steakhouse Argentina
Südermarkt 9
Fon +49 461 245 20
- 13 Café & Restaurant „Roter Hof“
Rote Straße 14, Roter Hof
Fon +49 461 50 52 370
- 14 Weinstube im Krusehof
Rote Straße 22–24, Krusehof
Fon +49 461 128 76
- 15 Wein- & Rumhaus Braasch
Rote Straße 26–28, Braasch-Höfe
Fon +49 461 14 16 00
- 16 Fischperle
Ballastkai 4 – c/o fishmarket
Fon +49 461 182 82 30
- 17 Mäder's Restauration
Ballastkai 9 – c/o Werftkontor
Fon +49 461 150 79 00

Tourismus Agentur Flensburger Förde GmbH

Tourist Information Center Flensburg

Nikolaistraße 8 • 24937 Flensburg

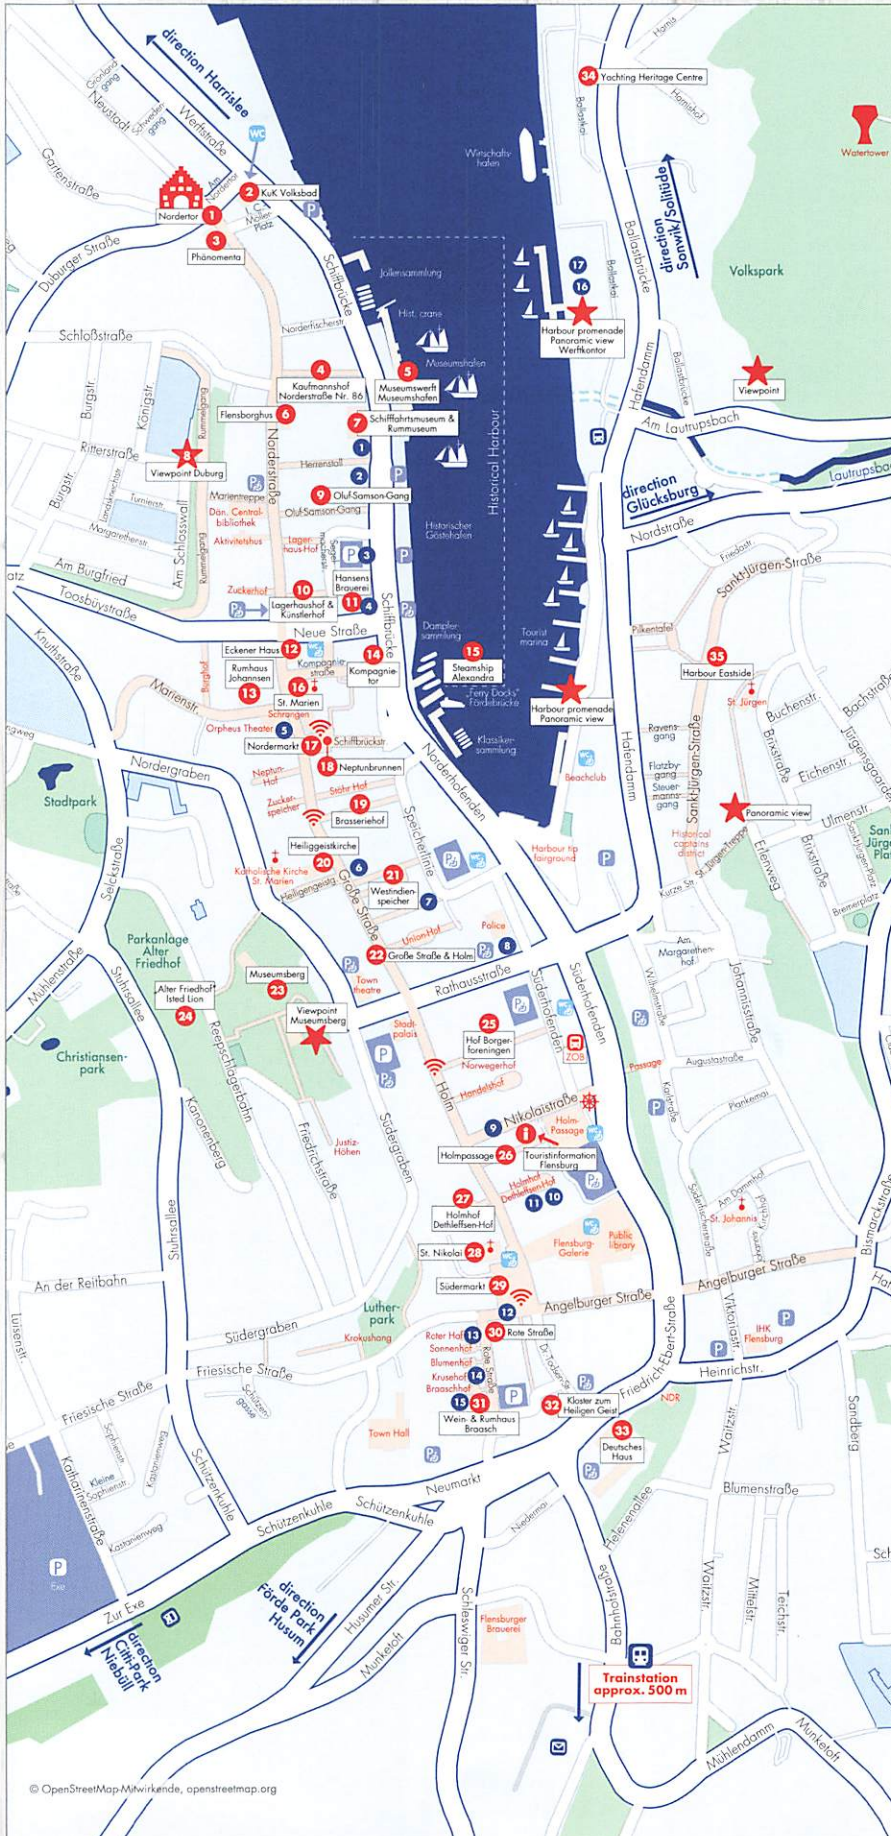

Opening hours: Mo–Fr: 9–18 • Sa: 10–14

Fon: +49 461 90 90 920

Fax: +49 461 90 90 936

E-Mail: info@flensburger-foerde.de

www.flensburg-fjord.de

Old Town Tour Flensburg

1 Nordertor

Northern gateway Flensburgs landmark, built around 1595 and the northern boundary of the city until 1795. Over the archway on the northern side are the royal Danish coat of arms from Christian IV and the city.

2 Volksbad

Former bath house. Now a cultural and communication center.

3 Phänomena

Science center Situated in a former merchants courtyard, the center invites to playfully dive into the world of science. The experience house for young and old.

4 Kaufmannshof

Norderstraße No. 86

A typical merchant's courtyard of the 18th century. On the harbor side a lateral storehouse (warehouse). Courtyard with facilities for processing goods, accommodation for workers, stables and well system. In the front house parallel to the street is where the merchants lived and had offices.

5 Museumshafen & -werft

Museum harbor & shipyard Harbor for traditional sailing ships with the wooden crane on the quayside. Old traditional sailing ships are still being built and restored here. Spectators are very welcome! Maritime events like "Rum Regatta", "Apfelfahrt" (Apple Trip) and "Grog-Törn" (Grog Trip) take place here.

6 Flensborghus

Building Flensburg's first orphanage. Built 1723–1725 from stones of the Duburg Fortress. Danish beam inscriptions. King Friedrich IV's monogram on the building front. Seat of the Danish minority institutions in Flensburg and the border area.

7 Schifffahrtsmuseum & Rum-Museum

Rum & Maritime Museum Experience maritime history in the old customs building. Find out more about slaves, rum & sugar, harbor & courtyards, ships & steamers, ropes & rigging, as well as shipbuilding & fjord shipping industry. In the basement of the old customs building is a multimedia show reflecting the town's rum history. The museum is also the starting point of a signposted city walking tour called the "Kapitänsweg" (Captains Route) and the "Rum & Zucker Meile" (Rum & Sugar Mile).

8 Viewpoint Duburg

Old castle site reached via Rummelgang or the Marien stairs. A hillside about 30 meters over the water level with a wonderful view of Flensburg and the fjord.

9 Oluf-Samson-Gang

In former times, the street where sailors and craftsmen used to live. Later, for many years "the red light area" within the amusement district of the city.

10 Lagerhaushof & Künstlerhof

Courtyards located in the Norderstraße connected to the Segelmacherstraße, with impressive examples of urban renewal around 40 years ago.

11 Rumhaus Sonnberg

A former famous rum producer, now "Hansens Brauerei".

12 Eckener Haus

Town house, 16th century. The birth place of Hugo Eckener, a famous aviation pioneer (first crossing of the Atlantic in a Zeppelin LZ 127 in 1924) and Alexander Eckener, painter and graphic designer.

13 Rumhaus Johannsen

Old merchant courtyard built during the period of the Nordic trade, impressive tower "Marienburg". Company seat of the oldest active rum manufacturer in Flensburg. The small shop „Johannsens Hökerei“ offers tasting and sales in cozy atmosphere. Convivial guided tours take place in the storehouse and production area.

14 Kompagnietor

Built 1602 from the association of skippers and merchants "Flensburger Schiffergelaug 1580", guild. In the gable, King Christian IV, Queen Anna Catharina and the town's coat of arms. The high water marks on the building are levels of past floods.

15 Steamship „Alexandra“

Registered technical monument. The only sea-going saloon steamer in Germany built 1908.

16 St. Marien

Church A three-naved Stone structure from 1284, with late medieval ceiling murals. Bronze baptismal font by Michael Dibler (1591), altar by the craftsman Hinrich Ringerink and the Dutch painter Jan van Enum. The epitaphs (commemorative plaques for the deceased) are significant, in particular the Beyer family (1591) with a town view of that period. Impressive stain glass windows by the Flensburg artist Käte Lassen (1880–1956).

17 Nordermarkt

Market square Dating back to the city's origin with a covered arcade in which bakers and butchers used to have their stands. At the gable end you can still see the mounting bracket of the pillory.

18 Neptunbrunnen

Fountain Built 1758 with a mirrored monogram of the Danish King Frederick V.

19 Brasseriehof

Courtyard Große Straße 42–44, setting of Theodor Storm's short story: "Im Nachbarhaus links" (German writer).

20 Heiliggeistkirche

Church Built 1386. Serving the Danish community as a place of worship since 1588. Late medieval frescoes, baroque altar, votive ships.

21 Westindienspeicher

Warehouse Built 1789, between the Große Straße 24 and the Speicherlinie. Evidence of the flourishing trade with Danish West Indies.

22 Große Straße & Holm

Pedestrian zone Here, you may not only stroll and shop, but also find architectural pearls with history, like Holm No. 10, "Stadtpalais" town mansion with restored front built 1853; Holm No. 17, courtyard out of the time of trade with Norway in the 18th century; Holm No. 19/21, one of the oldest preserved merchant courtyards dating back to the time of prosperity before the Thirty Years War.

23 Museumsberg

Museum Hillside Hans-Christiansen house, Heinrich-Sauermann house, natural science museum and town museum. Rich collection of art and cultural history from the Schleswig area. An important regional museum with unique "Pesel & Döns" (parlour rooms), old chambers from the West coast, historical furniture from Schleswig-Holstein, significant Nolde collection, medieval sacral art, also with changing exhibitions.

24 Park „Alter Friedhof“ / Idstedt Lion

Cemetery park Created 1813, beautiful park with impressive grave stones, monuments as well as family tombs and soldier grave sites. Classicist Chapel built 1810–1813 by Axel Bundsen. The impressive lion that here once reminded of the Danish victory 1850 was brought back from Copenhagen and stands today for the Danish-German friendship on its old spot. Adjacent the Christiansen park, combines to the significant monumental garden complex.

25 Hof Borgerforeningen

Courtyard Holm 17, in the royal hall of today's restaurant, the Danish King Frederick VII celebrated great festivals in the 19th century.

26 Holmpassage

Arcade Successful combination of historic buildings (round tower and former „Bommerlunder“ aquavit storage cellar) and modern architecture.

27 Holmhof/Dethleffsen-Hof

Courtyard Holm 43/45, built in the 17th century. Former spirits and mustard factory.

28 St. Nikolai

Church Stone construction, around 1390, largest church of the city. Naming according to the patron saint of sailors and sailors. Bronze baptism from the 15th century, pulpit from the 16th century. The renaissance organ facade from Hinrich Ringerink (1609) is a cultural monument and the most elaborate in the whole North, the pipe organ in its construction "two organs in one", Schnitger organ 1709 and romantic-symphonic organ 2009, is unique worldwide.

29 Südermarkt

Market Square Oldest weekly market in Schleswig-Holstein, meeting point in Flensburg on Wednesday and Saturday morning, in the direction of the Rote Straße (south west) the oldest town house in Flensburg built around 1490, now Nikolai Pharmacy.

30 Rote Straße

Street Historic lane with five picturesque craftsmen and merchant courtyards. Embedding art, handicrafts, galleries, fashion and designer shops, cozy restaurants, cafés and wine bars.

31 Wein- & Rumhaus Braasch/ Braasch Rum Manufaktur Museum

Old timber frame buildings with two romantic courtyards and an outgoing host invite to linger and even have a test sip of rum. At shop hours the museum is open free of charge showing the private exhibition collection of distiller Walter Braasch.

32 Kloster zum Heiligen Geist

At the southern end of the Rote Straße, a former Franciscan monastery, 13th century. Since the Reformation a charitable foundation providing for old and poor citizens. Today a nursing and assisted living home.

33 Deutsches Haus

This building, officially inaugurated in 1930, was erected with substantial state aid from the Weimar Republic "an expression of the gratitude for German loyalty" during the German-Danish plebiscite in 1920. Concerts are performed here by the „Flensburger Bach-Chor“, „Schleswig-Holstein Sinfonieorchester“, „Sønderjyllands Symfoniorkester“, etc.

34 Yachting Heritage Centre

Ship museum Museum of yachting history, tradition of classic yachting and the history of classic yachts. House of yacht sport history, with the largest yachting library in the world, two galleries and an exhibition. 2016 opened by the family of the well-known silver manufactory Robbe & Berking.

35 Eastern Harbor Tour

Take the Angelburger Straße (street) east, one of the oldest connections between "Friesland" (frisian) and "Angeln" (anglia peninsula), it leads close to St. Johannes Church, the oldest place of worship in Flensburg, built in the 12th century out of field stones. From here, take the Johannisstraße north to St.-Jürgen-Straße and then up the "St.-Jürgen-Treppe" (stairs) to the viewpoint. You have a beautiful view over the harbor. Return via the St.-Jürgen-Straße or one of the small alleys, where many of the captain's and fisher houses remind of maritime history in the "Kapitänsviertel" (Captain's Quarter).